JAPANESE HERE
NOT CONTENTED WITH PROSPECTS

Laborers See No Chance of Advancement, Says One of Japanese Editors

"Japanese in Hawaii are not contented, that is the majority of them, those of the laboring classes, are not," said J. Mayama, editor of the Hochi Shinbun, last evening, as he reached for an alluringly red triangle of watermelon.

Mr. Mayama, one of the party of 10 Japanese editors who arrived here yesterday afternoon on the Tenyo Maru, bound for San Francisco to investigate the condition of Japanese on the Pacific coast, was sitting on a cushion on the floor of the tea house at the Mochizuki Club. It was that pleasant hour after dinner when cigars are being lighted, cigarettes rolled, and formally dispensed with.

Sixty guests had partaken of the excellent Japanese dinner given in honor of the visitors, formal speeches had been heard, and the hosts and guests were congregating in small groups here and there in the pavilion, while the geisha girls, squatting on the floor, were singing their world-old songs, or passed with light tread from group to group with refreshments.

"No, the Japanese here, the thousands who labor on your plantations, are not contented," continued Mr. Mayama. "They feel that they have no opportunity for advancement or promotion, and the process of saving money from their wages until they can start in business for themselves is very slow."

"Other classes seem delighted with conditions, and have no complaints. This afternoon we looked briefly into the school situation and found it very good. Also, we have no criticism to offer on the shops, the sanitary regulations governing the sale of fish and meats, for instance. But the common laborers—"

Mr. Mayama shook his head, and then buried his teeth in the waiting red meat of the slice of melon with which he had gestured while he talked.

When the Tenyo arrived at 5 o'clock last evening a delegation of local Japanese met the visiting editors at the dock. They were at once hurried into automobiles, and driven out to Ala plantation, which was given a hurried examination. The dinner at the Japanese club on the Waikiki beach was scheduled for 7 o'clock, but it was after 8 before the visitors all reached the resort, divested themselves of occidental clothes and kimono-clad, had seated themselves in the cool pavilion for the dinner. Plans for a Hawaiian luncheon had been abandoned, and a Japanese dinner was served at the low tables, which were decorated with var-colored asters, in striking contrast to the dark mahogany red of the lacquered trays which held the various dishes for each guest.

Fred K. Makino acted as toastmaster, and introduced the speakers, H. Arita, Japanese consul; S. Sheba, editor of the Hawaii Shinpo, and Rev. M. Hooki, the Buddhist abbot, addressed the visitors, after which each person at the tables rose and introduced himself by name and profession.

After visiting San Francisco and Los Angeles the Japanese newspapermen will scatter, some returning to Japan, some going north and sailing from Seattle, and some going on to visit New York before returning to Japan. The visitors, and the newspapers they represent, are as follows: E. Shinya, Tokio Nichinichi Shinbun; K. Osaki, Chugai Shosha; Z. Sato, Shuyo Shinbun; S. Kono, Yamato Shinbun; R. Ishikawa, Kokumin Shinbun; K. Kuroki, Miyako Shinbun; S. Shibuya, Jiji Shinpo; S. Fukunaga, Yozoru Choho; J. Mayama, Hochi Shinbun; K. Goto, Yomiuri Shinbun.

In honor of the visiting editors who arrived here yesterday from Japan the Nippon Jiji issued a special morning edition today. This is the first morning edition ever issued by the Nippon Jiji on a week day, and a cut of the flash light picture taken at the banquet at the Mochizuki at 10 o'clock last evening was produced at 4:30 this morning in the early edition. A full account of the banquet was printed, and the visiting editors were given an idea of local enterprise among the Japanese editors of Honolulu.

The first bale of new Georgia cotton was sold at Liverpool for 150 guineas, the proceeds going to charity.

More than a hundred persons caught in the town of McClellan, Ark., by flood water of White River were rescued.

FORT SHAFTER, Oct. 5.—Upon the recommendation of the commanding officer, Company I, 2nd Infantry, the following appointment has been made in that organization: Lance Cpl. Samuel E. Johnson to be corporal, vice James transferred.

The funeral services of Pvt. Hugh Burton, Company I, 3d Battalion of Engineers, were held at the armory in Honolulu at 10 o'clock this morning. The entire company of engineers from Fort Shafter and the band attended the funeral. Chaplain William Reese Scott, 2nd Infantry, conducted the services, and the remains were escorted to the transport Thomas by a detachment of his former company for shipment to Somersville, Tenn., the former home of the deceased.

Burton was on duty in September with a detachment of engineers at Pearl City on military topographical work, and on the evening of September 16th was found in an unconscious condition near the railroad tracks of Pearl City, with his skull crushed. He was taken to the department hospital at Shafter and died on September 17 while under an operation. He was 27 years of age, single, born in Somersville, Tenn., and has a mother living in Tennessee. He came to Hawaii in December, 1912, and was due to take the transport to the mainland, as his term of service expired on October 17th. Burton had served a previous enlistment in Company H, 20th Infantry.

War department orders received October 5th amend the former orders to sergeants who were recently transferred to Vancouver Barracks, and now that the order has been changed and they go to the Mexican border it does not look quite so good to them. Sgt. Shaulie L. McMaline, Company B, has been transferred to Company D, 12th Infantry, instead of Company E, 21st Infantry. Sgt. James E. Riley, Company C, has been transferred to Company G, 13th Infantry, instead of Company F, 21st Infantry. Sgt. Benjamin R. Paine, Company C, has been transferred to Company H, 12th Infantry, instead of Company G, 21st Infantry. Sgt. Raymond Spruill has been transferred to Company H, instead of Company G, 14th Infantry.

Cards have been received at Fort Shafter from Mr. and Mrs. Ross Richardson Mattis for the wedding of their daughter, Mary Katherine, to Lieut. Thomas J. Camp on Thursday evening, October 7, at the First Presbyterian church, Champaign, Illinois. A reception will immediately follow the ceremony and will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mattis at 201 Elm street. Lieut. and Mrs. Camp will sail for the Hawaiian Islands on the November transport, and will be at home after December 1st.

The following transfer of sergeants has been made to the 2nd Infantry: Sgt. Andrew P. O'Connor, Company D, 12th Infantry, Yuma, Arizona, to Company B; Sgt. Charles E. McCarthy, Company G, 12th Infantry, Nogales, Ariz., to Company C; and Sgt. Eli Roberts, Company H, 12th Infantry, Nogales, Ariz., to Company C.

Upon his own request Artificer Harry B. Histe, Company G, 2nd Infantry, Fort Shafter, Hawaii, has been transferred as a second-class private to the ordnance department, and will be sent on the first available transport to Fort McDowell, California, to report to the commanding officer, who will send him to Benicia Arsenal, Cal., for duty.

The following named enlisted men are detailed for duty with Headquarters Company, Mounted Orderly Section: Privs. Walter C. Brosch, Company C, Herbert L. Pack, Company C, John C. Byars, Company K, and James Russell, Company K.

Upon the recommendation of the commanding officer, Company A, 2nd Infantry, the following appointment has been made in that organization: Lance Cpl. Charles L. Neely, to be corporal, vice Derran, transferred.

Upon the recommendation of the commanding officer, Company G, 2nd Infantry, the following appointment has been made in that organization: Pvt. John F. Burns, to be corporal, vice Miller, transferred.

The troops at Fort Shafter will be paid on Wednesday by Capt. Van Way, Quartermaster Corps, at the post exchange building, commencing at 10 a. m. About $35,000 is necessary for this disbursement.

Leave for 25 days with permission to leave the Hawaiian department, to take effect upon arrival at San Francisco about November 12, has been granted 2nd Lieut. Adrian K. Polhemus, 2nd Infantry.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY
FIRST ANNUAL RALLY TO BE HELD SUNDAY

The Holy Name Society will give its first annual rally at the Moanalua Polo Grounds next Sunday, October 10th. The fun begins at 10 a. m. and lasts through the afternoon. There will be all kinds of sports, including a first-class baseball game; also various mirth-provoking stunts, such as sack races, tug-of-war and shoe races. Prizes will be offered in all events. Director Brother Louis, of St. Louis College, and the live committee in charge promise a whole day packed full of features. It is anticipated that most of the members will tramp from the end of the car line to the polo grounds, but those who prefer can ride in the motor buses.

Navy Department officials will look into published reports that ten Americans built submarines have crossed the Atlantic under their own power and are now with the allied fleets.

SATURDAY VISIT TO BIG WIRELESS
PLANT PLANNED

The first of the Saturday afternoon outings under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association will occur on Saturday of this week. The outing announced for this week—to the Coral Gardens under the leadership of Professor Bryan—has been postponed owing to the condition of the tide on that afternoon, and the trip to the Wahiawa wireless station of the Mutual Telephone Company has been substituted. It is planned to make the trip in a large auto-bus seating comfortably 25 persons.

The drive lies between the mountains and the sea giving glimpses of both and passes through the Ala plantation, Pearl City, and by means of a short detour through Schofield Barracks.

L. W. Branch, the wireless operator of the Mutual Telephone Company, will guide the party through the plant and will explain the workings of the wireless as fully as possible. The party will leave the Castle & Cooke building at 1 o'clock and will return to the city at about 6. Reservations should be made at the office of the Y. W. C. A. not later than Friday.

Such an outing will be taken each Saturday afternoon during the next 10 weeks, and will include trips to the Kaneohe Coral Gardens, to the Ewa Sugar Mill, to the Manoa cliff trail, to the College of Hawaii and Oahu College, to the Aquarium, to the Makiki experiment station and to the Bishop museum.

WAKENS TO FIND
MAN CROUCHING
BESIDE HER BED

Awaking in the middle of Sunday night to find a man crouched at her bedside, Mrs. Palmer, a guest of Mrs. W. C. Whitener at her home on Lanihull Drive, screamed vigorously for help. At the sound her assailant sprang upon her and closed his hands on her throat to silence her, and when he thought she was unconscious, turned to lock the door leading out to the porch where she was sleeping. In that moment she leaped from her bed and sprang over the railing of the porch to fall two stories and strike upon the rocks below. By a miracle she avoided instant death, but sustained a number of severe cuts and bruises.

A Japanese servant carried the alarm in the meantime to R. C. Brown, who lives nearby, and when Mr. Brown arrived he carried her to his home where she was kept the rest of the night, and then taken to Fort Shafter hospital. The mark of the man's hands is still livid on her throat. No clue as to the identity of the criminal can yet be discovered. Mrs. Palmer's only knowledge of him in the night was that he was small, the size of a boy, and therefore possibly an Oriental.

WOMEN MAY BE STRONG

and enjoy life whether in the home or business world if they can keep at bay those ailments peculiar to their sex. If every woman realized how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that simple remedy made from roots and herbs, goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes such symptoms as backache, head aches, nervousness and irritability, they would be healthier, happier and stronger. If you suffer from any form of female ills why don't you try it? It will pay you to do so.—Adv.

Former Gov. Cole L. Blease of South Carolina, announced he would be a candidate for governor again next year. The announcement concluded, "so on with the dance; let joy be unconfined."

Fourteen thousand Catholic Armenians were reported executed by drowning in the Black Sea by the Turkish military authorities.

Gen. Sir Charles Ferguson of England denied a report that he had given an order to his troops to show no quarter to the Germans.

'JAPANESE' NOT
'JAP,' CAUTIONS
JUDGE ASHFORD

Circuit Jurist Asks Attorneys to Show More Respect for Oriental Brothers

Honolulu attorneys, attention! In Circuit Judge Ashford's court a son—or daughter—of Dai Nippon is a Japanese.

He is not a "Jap." Neither is he. Judge Ashford thinks that a great discourtesy is shown the Japanese if an attorney—or any other person, for that matter—refers to a member of the race as being a "Jap."

He made this clear yesterday, when the attorneys for both sides in a certain criminal case referred to one of the witnesses as a "Jap." To the attorneys the witness was "Jap" and nothing more. Judge Ashford frowned. Then he scowled. Finally he held up the proceedings for a moment. He asked that the word "Jap" be eliminated from all conversation, argument or otherwise.

"Because," he said, "this witness is not a Jap. Neither is he a Lapp or a Yap. He is a Japanese."

This ruling doubtless will have weight in the matter of referring to a man as a "Chink," "Ginnee," "Dago," "Portugee," or some other such misinterpretation of nationality.

SURPRISES PROMISED AT AD CLUB LUNCHEON

At the regular Wednesday noon lunch meeting of the Ad Club Dr. R. D. Williams, Ph. D., will be the principal speaker. His topic has been withheld as a pleasant surprise for those attending.

J. D. Levenson states that there will also be a "stunt" which will, in itself, be well worth seeing, or hearing, as the case may be, for this has also been relegated to the realm of things mysterious.

Important business will be given attention, and a large attendance is expected. The luncheon will be held at the Young hotel as usual, tomorrow at noon, sharp.

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES

At 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, Lieut. W. C. Whitener, inspector-instructor of the National Guard of Hawaii, will inspect the three new National Guard companies which have recently been formed, the Kamehameha, Filipino and Engineer companies.

Four large sugar factories at Janesville, Wis., will reopen on Oct. 1. They had been closed by the last tariff law, but because of the shutting off of European shipments, they were enabled to resume business.

A seat on the New York Cotton Exchange was sold for $12,000, a decrease of $500 from the last previous sale.
